

EMBROIDERY SALE SATURDAY

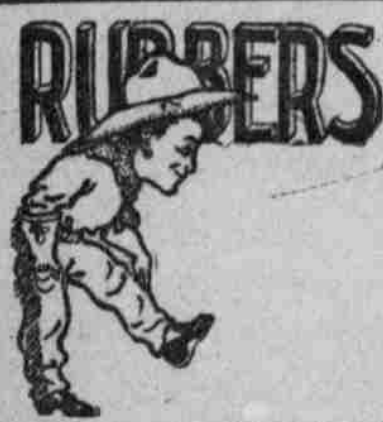

Indications point to a very heavy season on white and colored Embroideries. Saturday we open the season with a "rousing" old Embroidery Sale, making prices for this special day that will not be equaled during the whole season. Many short lengths of those beautifully fine edges and bands (for which we are famous) go in to make the sale still more interesting. The prices vary so we cannot quote prices on only two lots as follows:

One lot, values as high as 30 cents per yard - Saturday, 15c
One lot, values up to 18 cents per yard - Saturday, 10c

Miss Ide of St. Johnsbury will give a talk on Japan at the Congregational church to-night at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Ide was a visitor in Japan for nearly a year; she was frequently entertained and in many ways became very familiar with their lives. Her exhibition of native costumes and curios will be very interesting and instructive. We hope all those who can will reserve the evening of the 26th for this occasion. Japanese wafers and tea will be served. Admission, adults 20c, children under twelve, 10c.

Bernard Daly's performance of Rory of the Hills, the great romantic drama, "Rory of the Hills" is said to be a picturesque representation of a clear-headed, witty, brave young Irish character, full of music, pure sentiment, an abundance of jollity, fun and exciting situations. Mr. Daly's manager, Mr. A. R. Beer, has surrounded him with an excellent company and the play is well mounted with scenery, of which a full load is carried. At opera house to-morrow.

Although the wind last evening was so sharp and searching, more ventured out last evening than Wednesday night, to attend the service at the hall of the Evangelical church, 8 Merchant street. The evangelist, C. W. Green, had promised "something out of the ordinary," and spoke on "Old Time Religion." Mr. Green is a straightforward and forceful preacher. He also sang several times, accompanied by his guitar, and also played on his concertina. All of this was much enjoyed. To-night he is to preach on "Queer Fish and How to Catch Them."

The services will continue to be "out of the ordinary," and will be held at 7:30 o'clock each evening, except Saturday, until March 9th. Rev. Dr. F. Burns of Cambridge, Mass., presiding elder of the New England conference of the church, is to be present and preach on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 28. All are welcomed to these meetings.
